

Basic Crime Prevention Certificate Program

The Montana Board of Crime Control (MBCC) and the Montana Crime Prevention Council (MCPC) are partnering with the National Crime Prevention Association (NCPA) in hosting a Basic Crime Prevention Certificate Program in Montana.

- Webinar – May 4th at 10am – 12pm – required. Prior to the May 4th webinar, additional information will be sent out to attendees.
- Training – May 18-22. The training will be held at the Montana State University Bobcat Stadium in Bozeman, Montana. The training will begin at 12pm on May 18th and it will end at 2pm on May 22nd. Please see agenda for details.

This training will provide community leaders, local government, private sector partners, faith-based organizations, and others with information on many topics of crime prevention that will enable them to create safer, more secure, and more vibrant communities.

A Basic Crime Prevention Certificate Program will include the following:

- Free registration
- Forty hours of course work covering an array of crime prevention topics
- A crime prevention training manual
- A certificate of completion
- A copy of 150 page Crime Analysis for Problems Solvers manual
- A comprehensive crime prevention resource CD
- OPI renewal units, POST, LCPC, LCSW and LAC education credits
- NCPA membership certificate and new member's kit

Requirements of participants include the following:

- Standing member of NCPA – includes a $35 NCPA membership fee paid by the participant. Please bring the $35 check to the training (checks made payable to NCPA).
- Payment can also be sent directly to NCPA. Please visit <http://www.ncpc.org/programs/national-crime-prevention-association> for details.
- Travel expenses to the training location (lodging, mileage and meals).
- Arrangements can be made for the attendee to secure a room in a campus dormitory free of charge. For more information for this accommodation please call (406) 444-2947.
- Government rates of $79 plus tax are available. A block of rooms have been set aside at the Days Inn and Suites located at 1321 North 7th Avenue, Bozeman, MT 59715. (406) 587-5251. The rooms are being held under Montana Crime Prevention Certificate Program. Breakfast is included. Limited rooms available so please reserve a room right away.
- Lunches will be provided on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the training.

Please forward this training information to anyone who may be interested.

Respectfully,

Montana Board of Crime Control (MBCC)
Montana Crime Prevention Council (MCPC)